

(address), as defined. Registering Authority Note: In the case of a vehicle registered in the City of Vancouver, which consists of a separate vehicle of each owner including an owner in Canada and the Province of British Columbia a separate vehicle registration shall be issued for each. The registration will contain information on the owner of the vehicles number Plate and Registration Number. The name, address, gender, height, weight, licence class, driver's name and photograph. Registering Authority Note: In the case of a vehicle registered in Canada, which comprises a separate vehicle of each owner such that the owner's spouse, child or parent is the registered driver then the registration will contain the owner's name, address. and the owner also must sign the registration including the information previously specified. Registering Authority Note: In the Case of a vehicle registered in Canada, the owner must provide photographic identification or other evidence satisfactory to the Registrar as to the driver-owner. Registering Authority Note: The Registrar shall require an application and application fee to be paid if the registrant provides proof of their status. (a) The applicant shall include in the application the prescribed proof of vehicle ownership, such as a title, licence, bill of sale or similar document. (b) Proof of vehicle ownership may be: (i) A registration certificate, license or letter of conveyance signed or marked by the owner of the vehicle attesting to the driver's identity as a peace officer